

Thursday Night
8 Dec. 66

Well Mom,

Just thought I would write a few lines to say hi and to let you hear from me. I sure was glad to get to talk to you and daddy tonight. I hate to call so much I know I am running up your telephone but it gets lonesome down here.
But at least it won't be long before I get to come home for a few days.

Well, there is nothing much to write about around here since the same thing happens every day.

Moma, I was going to write Bill tonight but I forgot their

~~the~~ house number. So just tell him and June I said hello. Tell Cecil, Bill and daddy to get ready to go hunting because I want to go a few times when I get home.

Well, now the lights just ~~was~~ went out. So I guess I will close for now. I'll see you in about 8 days.

P.S. I am sending you a few of the pictures I was talking about. None if there are any good, but what can you expect they are of me.

8 days