Hello Mom + Dad

Just though I would write a few lines since I didn't get a chance to write yesterday. I had KP and I didn't get off until 8:00 and I was so tired I went to bed. There is nothing much to write about since I haven't done anything since I've been here. I sure will be glad when I go to the field. Everyone says the time goes by a lot faster out there and I'm tired of doing nothing.

Momma, have you got that money order I sent you? I hope so I'm worried about that bill I owe for the camera. I know you and daddy can't afford to pay for it.

I went to the PX today to buy some paper and a pen but they were sold out. So I had to borrow some paper to write you and Carolyn with. If they don't get any in the next few days I will write a let you send me some. But don't send any until I write and let you know.

Well Mom, like I said there is nothing much to write about so I will close for now and go over to the Club and drink a beer before I go to bed. Tell Daddy and all the rest I said hello.

Love,
Jenny

P.S.

I am sending you some money so you can buy some stamps to write me. (Ka! Ka!)

Hello Mom,

Just thought I would write a few lines to say hello and to let you hear from me. Well, I've been gone about five days and it seems like five months. We left Travis A.F.B. Thursday morning at 1:00 in the ~~morning~~ and got here about 10:00 Sat. morning. I can't tell you where I'm at because I don't know. I don't believe it is too far from here to Saigon. But I really don't know all I know I am in Viet Nam and I don't think I am going to like it here. It's too damn hot but I guess I will get used to it. It has just stopped raining and it has cooled off a little. It must have been 90° or 95° yesterday and today

There is a Roberson boy in the next tent from Newman I went threw B.C.T. with him. He told me a few min. ago that Steve was down here so I think I will try to find him tonight. I'm still with those three boys that was at St. Polk with me, we have been together sence we left Atlanta.

Well Mom, its getting late and I've got to write Carolyn before its gets dark so I will close for now and write you again the first chance I get. Tell everyone I said hello. Don't worry about me I am doing fine.

Love,
Jerry
